8. [] In response to his call to Colonel White, I called Herb Connelly, NSA, to give him a few personal views on what he might encounter in NSA's upcoming briefing of Chairman Hebert. I told him they would find Hebert relaxed and informal, and suggested they avoid an overly technical or formal presentation. I said that they might

10. [] In response to their request, I met with Messrs. Lowenstein and Moose, Senate Foreign Relations Committee staff, and reviewed, from a standpoint of security and accuracy, their draft report on their trip to Greece. They readily agreed to accept the few suggestions I offered, and it was understood that the fact that I had reviewed the report would in no circumstances be disclosed outside the Agency and the Committee staff.
